

CARPENTER FITTER

“AMEL is a company with a family spirit, and has always possessed the finest know-how.”

The carpenter-fitter's job is a very meticulous one. He adjusts, fits and finalises onboard woodwork: furniture, floors, and the overall structure. His job begins when construction starts, once the hull is finished.

The first phase involves laying the main structure, i.e. the primary ribbing (lateral and longitudinal reinforcements) up to the bulkheads. The second phase is dedicated to fitting furniture and floors up to the deck of the boat. This is a meticulous process, and it takes time. The third phase is devoted to the finishing touches and is managed by another team.

MISSION STATEMENT

- Assembling joinery elements
- Adjusting wooden parts, either varnished or unvarnished, fitting hardware (hardware parts like as hinges, push-buttons, etc.).
- Finishing (sanding and joint treatment)
- Can take part in lamination work

CHRISTOPHE BARDIN CARPENTER FITTER AND TEAM LEADER AT THE AMEL SHIPYARD

“ What I like about my job is the meticulous attention to detail and the high quality woods we use. I'm also a team leader, so I get to work on all the trades. For instance, my team includes a mechanic, an electrician and a plumber. It really is a very interesting and diverse job. I enjoy learning new things, and I've learned a lot over the past 30 years. ”
